

The Addresses Delivered in Trinity Church, New Haven, Connecticut At the Diocesan Centenary Celebration of the Consecration of the Right Reverend Abraham Jarvis, D.D., Second Bishop of the Diocese Held on Wednesday, October

By Samuel Fermor Jarvis

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 26 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1898 Excerpt: . . . well his part in these discussions he would spend the night sitting in his chair supported by pillows, in the greatest pain, but he bore all with patient submission and a sweet cheerfulness which brought tears into the eyes of all who were witnesses of his sufferings. There were few parishes to visit. There was not the hurry, confusion and excitement as to the necessity See for the Bishops address and that of the Clergy, Appendix IV, page 87. for keeping the next appointment which seems to be the accompaniment of modern Episcopal visitations. Time then was not the sole consideration. It was not thought to be wasted if spent in the service of God, in learning the actual condition spiritually, financially, and otherwise of the various parishes. A Bishop was a novelty, but his character, his office, was fitly appreciated, and by the longer sojourn...

Reviews

This pdf is indeed gripping and exciting. It is written in easy words and phrases and not confusing. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Alayna Kuphal

This pdf is amazing. I actually have gone through it and that I am sure that I will plan to read it once again in the future. You won't truly feel monotony at any moment of the time (that's what catalogs are for regarding when you request me).

-- Wellington Connelly