Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The San Francisco Polyclinic: A Free Dispensary for the Sick Poor Gentlemen - Your committee, appointed to make the annual report of the Polyclinic, submits herewith the record of the institution from March, 1891 to June, 1892, this record embracing the history of the affairs and work of the Polyclinic as an eleemosynary organization, with statistical statements of the number of patients treated, and also the report of the changes which have taken place in the organization of the staff. The Polyclinic, founded by us as primarily a charity - a dispensary where the sick poor could have the necessary and proper treatment - and presented to the public as such, has never changed in the least its character in that regard. The original ideas which moved us to organize the institution have, to be sure, undergone some modifications, but that was only because we much underestimated the need that existed for such a charity; and we have thus been obliged to modify our ideas only to remodel our plans and enlarge our facilities to...
