It would have the further advantage of bringing our church, through the elective power of its alumnus-pastor, into closer sympathy and work with our theological school. The average Unitarian church member knows but little of the place where the denomination is educating its young men and women for his pulpit. This increased power and helpfulness of his minister could be made a matter of statement and interest to the congregation, and serve as an incentive for greater zeal in its behalf by him. Can we not look forward to a period of greater activity in the alumni by this added responsibility and trust? L. H. B. Ube aseneficiars jfuno. Aid to students can be given in three ways: as a reward...
