Excerpt: .Compensation Acts. 0 What are the objects to be aimed at in arranging and classifying the law? 1 When is it expedient to make changes in existing classifications or in legal nomenclature? Some of the best modern writers assert that the object of classification is practical convenience, not logical or scientific order, and that changes from the existing arrangement or nomenclature should be made only for very weighty reasons. The end sought, it is said, is a purely practical one ; not symmetry, elegantia, or logical order for its own sake. The existing classification should The great majority of these statutes do not purport to apply only to extrahazardous occupations. See 27 HARV. L. REV. 344-45, 348, 363. Such inconsistencies must eventually lead to a change that will assimilate the rules of liability in the different cases. Judge Swayze, 25 YALE L. J....
